Rules & Policies for Members

Modified March 2017

RCG (Ranch Community Garden) is an “organic” garden welcoming both new and experienced gardeners. The garden is run by an all-volunteer Board, and encourages all members to volunteer at least 10 hours each year to help build the community. Twelve RCG plots are designated to raising produce for a local Food Bank each year. Your plot fee is helping to contribute fresh food to those in need. We also encourage composting, sustainable fertilizing, and helping each other weed and harvest. If you believe in our community vision feel free to contribute more to the garden fund.

By paying the annual fee you automatically become a Ranch Community Garden Member. Each of our members will follow the rules and policies listed below.
